COUNCIL GOES
AFTER M'GINNIS.*Want Him to Tell What He Did With the Second Ward
House House.*HENRY WEIHE INTERLOCUTOR*Catechizes Council on Various Matters and Then Subdues Socialists Sit Back But Say Nothing—Minutes Were Lengthy.

Town Council last evening established a precedent by passing a resolution calling upon William Dempsey McGinnis to appear at the next regular meeting and explain what he did with the second ward house house. The resolution was submitted by Councilman Frank Friel and seconded by Councilman T. J. Brennan. It was passed. McGinnis is alleged to have carried off the house house from the second ward. Three of these house houses cost $236 and Council wants to know why any of them was taken from the premises at the Marietta-Stillwagon hill park.

The demand upon McGinnis, Henry Weihe's calling Council to account and the reading of the minutes featured an otherwise featureless session. The body was in session less than an hour and Clerk A. O. Hixler consumed 20 minutes of that with the minutes of the previous meeting, going back to the session of November 10.

Lamar Stillwagon, by nomination elected a Councilman from the Third ward to succeed his brother, the late Clair Stillwagon, Councilman D. L. Berg presented this motion and John F. Koser seconded it. On motion of Friel, the election was by acclamation.

Henry Weihe got his turn when the visitors were called upon. He said he heard a citizen had paid $175 towards some street paving.

"Who gets that?" Weihe asked, "the borough or some individual?"

He was assured the borough would get it when the paving was done.

"What, that ought to be a part of the minutes," he said.

He was assured that such was the case.

"Well, how about this charge of $1 against a citizen for a permit to dig up a street. Where is your authority for collecting this?"

He was referred to Burgess Evans.

This was not entirely satisfactory and he expressed the view that private citizens should not be taxed for permits when the gas and water companies can do it for nothing.

"How about a pole tax, is that being paid, too?" he persisted. It was told.

He was told he heard it wasn't paid any more. Asked if that was all, he replied it was, for the present, and was seated.

Under the head of finance, Mrs. Dunlap of the Second Ward was excused for the 1906, 1908 and 1909 duplicates, the total bill being $8.53, bills paid some time ago were formally passed.

Under the head of streets, Chairman Hay reported South Pittsburgh street bridge in bad condition and the clerk was directed to refer the matter to the County Commissioners.

Mr. Hay also asked for more hose to sprinkle streets with but Chairman Thomas of the Finance Committee had that sidetracked until the next meeting.

Chairman Stillwagon, Mr. Hay objected to the use of fire hose because of the insurance adjusters might complain but Mr. Thomas called that argument "far fetched." Chairman Hay of the Street Committee was directed to have the hose along South alley repaired and ashes spread on Arch street for the school children. The clerk was told to notify the water company that it had left South Pittsburgh street, near the tabernacle, in bad shape.

New lights were ordered placed, two in Snyderstown and one at the corner of Arch street and Patterson avenue.

Chairman Friel of the Water Committee reported no further word from the water company regarding a new contract.

Under public safety the McGinnis incident came up. After electing Lamar Stillwagon to Council adjournment was taken. A number of Socialists were present but the water question in which they are interested, did not come up for discussion.

The bills ordered paid were as follows: Templeton's bakery, bills for 2 months, $22.95; Mrs. B. C. Stauffer, town hire, $12; George Shomer, flowers, $25; G. W. McGinnis, repairing whistles, $3; Keystone Planning Mill Co., supplies, $16.15; East Side Co., umbrellas, annual salary, $125; George Enos, blacksmithing, $49.99; Ralph Hyatt, street signs, $22.99; Pennsylvania railroad, freight, $7.10; United Sewer Pipe Co., $21.95; J. H. Hogg, brick furnished, $3.08; Schell Hardware Co., supplies, $185.15; B. O'Connor, on account, $4.00; H. L. Regar, firemen's relief, $5; West Penn Electric Co., supplies, $5.

ROAD SUPERVISORS ARRESTED
FOR ALLEGED NEGLIGENCE.*Connellsville Twp. Officials Agree to Remove Mud and Fix Up Road If Information Is Not Returned to Court.

Constable C. P. Miller made information before Squire Kern of Connellsville township yesterday and arrested C. D. Yowler, James May and G. G. Trump, Road Supervisors of Connellsville township. The charge is maintaining and causing a nuisance on the public highway.

Frank Pierce, John Slater and W. S. Ringer were qualified as witnesses for the Commonwealth. It was proven by those witnesses that a stretch of road on Pittsburg street, about one-third of a mile, extending from Gibson avenue to Vine street, South Connellsville, is in worse condition than it has been for 15 years, the bad condition being caused by the supervisors hauling about eight inches of soft shale and sand stone which was taken out of the hill when the large reservoir was constructed several years ago for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

These stones were covered with about six inches of clay, which put the road in its present condition.

After hearing the witnesses the supervisors were held for court, but on the condition that they will remove all the mud from the road at their own expense and ask the walk along Pittsburg street and have it done by March 1st, the information will not be returned to court.

To remove this mud will take several weeks hard work and will cost the supervisors considerably. However, they seem every anxious to live up to their new contract as two of them left the office of the Justice and got their shovels and at once set to work shoveling off the mud like good fellows.

Miners After John Mitchell*Cutted Press Telegram.

CLAYTON, O., Jan. 27.—If a resolution which was put before the international convention of the United Mine Workers is adopted, it will mean the expulsion of John Mitchell, former President of the miners, from the union or his retirement from the Civic Federation.

The Civic Federation is condemned on the ground that it represents interests inimical to labor. It has within its membership such men as J. P. Morgan and John D. Rockefeller.

Although John P. White, President-elect of the miners has not yet announced his policy, it has leaked out that it will be one of retrenchment in administration. It is said measures are being prepared which would abolish the international Executive Board and an expensive branch of the administration.

Fat Jobs Under City

ity in Connellsville the Democrats Will Put Up Candidates—The Keystone Party is Dead.

The Democrats of Connellsville are not in the least discouraged by the rapidly increasing Republican majority which has made itself evident in every recent election. The party of Bryan and Champ Clark will enter a full line of candidates in the coming spring. Already the prospective nominees are being groomed.

Along with awakening interest on the part of the newer, younger and ever valiant Democrats, it is said a Citizens' party is to be put in the field and that John Duggan will help ex-him the corpse. Duggan isn't exactly in the right with either the Republicans or Democrats, so the Citizens' ticket offers him a haven of refuge.

J. David Stillwagon, former superintendent of the Connellsville Water Company, is said to have the Mayor's eye. Dave thinks the job would just fit him, as his building is conspicuously sounding the Democratic leaders on the proposition. He is out for the nomination in earnest.

It is reported on good authority that the Connellsville City which was born in the fertile brain of Connellsville E. C. Higbee is grooming a Democratic candidate who would be acceptable to the Higbee-McGinnis managers in Connellsville. Higbee and McGinnis, the latter chairman of the Municipal Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, and a number of others, have reached the conclusion that the Connellsville City is the only way to the beginning of the new political era.

The millionnaire packer, looking hearty and cheerful, came downstairs at the home of his sister, Mrs. Mary Duggan. He insisted he felt well enough to talk.

"I want to tell the world, through the United Press, what I think; what I have thought; how I feel and what I intend to do. There is a time for everything. This is the time to talk."

"What do you think of the verdict?" he was asked.

He then gave the following statement:

"What can I say of the result of the trial? I hoped and hoped against hope, I was hardly surprised. I followed the progress of the case, I saw how Mrs. Schenk's attorneys were playing solely for the jurors' sympathies. We planned our faith in the hope that they would see what we know to be true but since they couldn't, it has to be so."

"Of course it's a terrible disappointment. My wife's attorneys led the people to believe that I was a villain. I think the vote of 9 to 3 for conviction was a victory in itself. I will never take my wife back; no, no! After what she did to me and my children, could any man do that? I see now how it all was. I have never considered becoming reconciled. All those reports are absolutely true. I will say my sister and brother have been lying to me so that I would be kept away from her. They charge me with being so weak that my family has to watch over me to keep her influence from me. I am man enough to do that myself. I stand upon my own feet."

Schenk was told of the plans of Mrs. Schenk's attorneys to make him assume responsibility for part of her expenses.

He never never do that unless I have to; not after what she has done to me. She can't have Robert and Virginia unless the court makes me give them up. Is there a judge who would commit me to turn my little children over to her?"

The millionnaire, against the wishes of his nurse, Miss Evans, called both children from upstairs.

"I want you to see for yourself how they feel," he said. The children came in running at their father's summons. Virginia, a tall slim girl of 11, approached shyly, but Robert was hilarious.

"Do you have your papa more than you have mamma?" both were asked. Virginia flushed.

"Ever so much," she said.

"If your mamma tried to take you to her would you care?"

Robert replied: "I want to stay with papa."

When the packer dismissed the children his eyes were full of tears.

"Now do you understand?" he asked softly. The packer resumed his statement.

"I have no definite plans for the future. They say I am considering leaving Wheeling because of all the publicity. That is not true. I shall face it."

Three Get Time.

Three drunks faced Burgess Evans in police court this morning. None had any money and a new 75 hours each because they were disorderly and void as drunk.

WILL AGREE TO CHANGES IN NEW BOROUGH BOUNDARIES.*South Connellsville Residents Willing to Lop Off Big Portion of Territory in Their Borough as Originally Planned.

The promoters of the new borough of South Connellsville are willing to compromise with the taxpayers of the Connellsville borough. The township who are objecting to the erection of the borough as now planned and including a large section of mountain land in the township. The proposed new limits cut out much territory now included in the borough. However, all the manufacturing plants at South Connellsville are included, and they are not satisfied to compromise with the corporate limits of the new borough. The boundaries of the borough as erected by the court order made months ago are as follows:

Beginning at a point on the west bank of the Youngbush river opposite to Gibson avenue; crossing the river and following the line of Gibson avenue eastward to Blue street; thence north to Woodlawn avenue; thence by said Woodlawn avenue eastward to the southwest corner of the Connellsville borough; thence north along said Woodlawn line to Isabella street; thence by Isabella street southeastward to the Reidsmore road; thence eastward along the John T. Hodge hotel property to the Hiram Truitt place; thence around the J. M. Reidsmore property to the Truitt Hollow road; thence southward along the mountain slope to the Buffalo place; thence westward by the Fischer property to the west bank of the Youngbush river; thence northward along the Dunbar township line and said west bank of the Youngbush river to the place of beginning.

It is now proposed to modify this plan by starting at a point on the Fischer property opposite Sixth street (Continued on Page Two.)

INSURANCE RATES ARE CONSIDERED.*Municipal Committee of Chamber of Commerce
Hold Conference*WITH UNDERWRITERS HERE*Better Understanding Regarding Mercantile Rates is Outcome and New Report on Connellsville is Prompted

The Municipal Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of which W. D. McGinnis is the chairman, met yesterday with representatives of the Underwriters' Association of the Mercantile Department together with the local agents, and took up the matter of adjusting the rates on mercantile risks. Dwelling rates are not affected as they only the lowest rates. The matters under fire are the penalties imposed because of delinquency of the fire lighting equipment and water supply of the town.

H. W. Chapman of the Pittsburgh office of the Underwriters, District Secretary, N. Brundage of Greensburg and Engineer M. S. Green of Philadelphia, were present. So were local agents J. Donald Porter, Henry Goldsmith and son, Oliver, F. Vanatta of S. F. Hood & Company, C. M. Evans of Evans & Weaver and George Fuhrer. The committee then were Chairman W. D. McGinnis, W. H. Thomas, F. R. Graham, F. H. Harwood and A. A. Straub, together with President Worth Kilpatrick and Secretary J. Fred Kutz.

The outcome of the meeting was a promise on the part of the underwriters that within the next three weeks Engineer Green, in company with a number of the standard adopted by the underwriters, a two cent penalty for hydrants improperly spaced and of a type not up to standard; a one cent penalty for lack of a standard fire alarm system; a 10 cent penalty for the lack of a thoroughly organized fire department; a six cent penalty for not having a fire engine and a one cent penalty for not owning the water works.

All of these penalties were objected to and argued. President Kilpatrick insisted that for the past 20 years, in every fire the town has had, the water supply has been adequate and the fire fighting forces efficient, and held that this record should offset technical deficiencies. The most absurd penalty, W. H. Thomas insisted, was that of 6 cents for not owning a fire engine, but Engineer Green declared the town depends upon the pumping station for its pressure, that by not coming up to the standard required, and a fire engine should be a part of the equipment. He added, however, that instead of making this charge, the pumping station should have been crutched as a fire engine and the penalty assessed for the lack of a second main between the source of supply and the fire hydrants.

It was admitted, however, that the former inspection of the town might have done the town an injustice and for that reason a second report will be completed.

The objection to the fire alarm system was because the central station is not located in a fire proof building and the boxes might not be properly located.

Mr. Chapman declared the Board of Underwriters is anxious to cooperate with civic and municipal organizations in adjusting rates and expressed willingness to heartily cooperate with the Committee on Municipal Affairs. He held out no hope of lower rates.

"We will have this report made. Perhaps it may disclose deficiencies the last report does not show. It may show that deficiencies reported no longer exist. All that will be adjusted. Then, much depends upon what Connellsville does in regard to removing the deficiencies that are pointed out. We will tell you just what will be required to have these penalties removed and then it will be up to you."

The committee could not see why Connellsville should be penalized 24 cents and Uniontown not 13, but the delegation could throw no light on that subject.

The matter was taken up with the underwriters at this time because of the new contract pending with the water company.

J. C. BROWNFIELD DEAD AT SCOTSDALE.

Justice of the Peace and Former Newspaper Man Passes Away.

WAS AGED SIXTY-TWO YEARS

Born Near Uniontown. An Orphan Child. He Fought His Way Up—Funeral Services on Saturday Afternoon.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, Jan. 27.—John C. Brownfield died at his home in East Scottdale at 8 o'clock last evening, from cancer of the throat, aged 62 years. He had been ill for some months and gradually his condition grew worse. His death came calmly and peacefully, however.

The deceased was one of the best known citizens of Fayette and Westmoreland counties. He was born near Uniontown July 12, 1835, and was the only son of Dr. Thomas Brownfield and Harriet (Crable) Brownfield. His mother died when he was but 10 months old and his father when he was aged 12 years. From that time he was thrown on his own resources and made his way successfully in the world. He was married to Miss Kate Trimmer by Rev. H. Lucas, August 12, 1857, in Conneltsville. One of the first residents of Scottdale, when it was known as Fountain Mills, he was employed in the fountain mills and had lived here ever since that time.

The deceased was a former editor of the Scottdale Independent and was connected with various newspapers, where he was known as a careful and diligent news gatherer with a pleasing way of presenting the news. In 1907 he was elected Justice of the Peace of Upper Tyrone township, Fayette county, where he served as Justice from that time on with distinction and was frequently complimented upon by the court officers for the clear and methodical way in which he presented all his papers.

He sent his resignation to the Governor some weeks ago, when he could no longer be at his office, but the resignation has not yet been accepted.

The funeral services will be held from the late residence of the deceased in East Scottdale, just above the Scottdale station of the B. & O. railroad on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with burial in the Scottdale cemetery.

He was a member and manager of the Old Craft Band, which was organized in 1878, and was a member of the famous martial organization since 1890. The band was one of the features of the Centennial celebration in Conneltsville, and also was in demand at several places for Fourth of July and Memorial Day services.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Charles W., employed in a large painting house in Coaketon, O.; Mrs. James Farley, of Pittsburg; John H., a mining engineer and Joseph G., employed in the office of the U. S. Steel Coke Company at Scottdale; Miss Alice E., and Thomas N. Brownfield, editor and publisher of the Scottdale Review, the latter two living at home. In September last all the children were at home and a reunion was held.

Postoffice Robbed.
The postoffice at Upper Meriden was robbed Wednesday night of $29 in cash. No stamps were taken.

WILL AGREE TO CHANGES IN NEW BOUNDARIES.

In the plan of lots laid out by the Conneltsville Company, they thence northward along said street to the H. P. Berryhill property; thence eastward along the said Berryhill property to the George Swank place; thence northward along the Swank property to Ethel street; thence east along Ethel street to a point opposite the line of Mrs. Catherine Ruff; thence northward along the Ruff property to the Conneltsville borough line; thence by the other metes and bounds westward to the Youngsborough river and southward along the river to the Plach property; thence to the place of beginning.

This eliminates the field and Buffalo properties and all the properties east of a line practically drawn at the Berryhill property.

The following properties included in the first borough plan are left out of the proposed new plan: Henry Trump, Joe Morris, Col. Reid, Charles F. Hood, Jack's place, Lucas property, Hogz property, Schreyer property, Bloom property, G. G. Trump place, James McElhenny farm, Thomas E. Evans property, P. Bufano meadow farm, Homer Trump farm, Nott farm, Jack McElhenny farm, Celia McElhenny place and a large section of the Plach property.

Franklin Pierce of South Conneltsville is President of the association having in charge the affairs of the proposed new borough. Conferences have been held with the taxpayers objecting to the borough but no definite agreement has been reached. It is understood that the South Conneltsville people are satisfied to cut out the territory proposed under the new boundaries.

Wants Votes for the Women

An advocate of Woman's Suffrage sends The Courier the following: An amendment to the State Constitution changing the wording of the section which says that male citizens over 21 years may have the ballot, is to be voted upon in the Pennsylvania Legislature this winter. People all over the State who are interested in seeing women have the right to vote, as well as to be taxed are anxious that petitions and personal letters be sent to Legislators asking that the word "male" be stricken from the amendment, so that all citizens over 21 years may have the right of franchise.

Here is an opportunity for active service on this question, and if this could be attained it would be a forward step in the direction of justice to all, and the elevation of politics in our State as it is generally conceded that a large majority of the women of our State would be identified on the side of purity in politics. Do not wait. Now is the opportune time. If you believe that neither men nor women should be disfranchised on account of the excellent of sex, get busy and send your request to your Legislators to vote to drop that word "male" from the amendment.

Supper Marking Flight of Time

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, Jan. 27.—There seemed to be a sort of loneliness in certain quarters of this burg last night. Familiar faces were missing from their usual rendezvous. "Billie" and "Ed" and "Pat" and "Doc" and "Mae" did not respond to the roll call, and the thing began to rot on the nerves of some of the curious; there was talk at one time of sending in a general alarm.

It was all made clear, however, when it was learned that John P. Brennen, one of the life members of H. P. O. E. Lodge No. 777, was giving a little supper at the home in commemoration of the "flight of time" or something else. Festivities began at the conclusion of the regular session of the lodge and wound up later.

When it comes to making cake, or entertaining his friends, "J. P." is always among the leaders, and last night he was away ahead of the runners.

Speeches were made, a few stories told and everybody was happy. What more could an Elk ask?

Coke Man Has Shoulder Broken

George Thomas, yard foreman for the W. J. Rutherford interests at the Plant near East Liberty, while at his work yesterday met with a painful but not serious accident. While superintending some work Thomas fell or was knocked off a car and landed on his left shoulder, dislocated. He was taken to the office of Dr. J. F. Cogan at Dawson and later to the Cottage State Hospital where the shoulder was set.

At present Thomas is getting along nicely. He met with a similar accident two years ago and in exactly the same manner.

Miss Hood Back From Paris Trip

Miss Marie Hood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hood of the South Side, has returned from a brief visit to Paris and was accompanied home by her cousin, Miss Anna Robart. The Parisian visit of Miss Hood's was not as long as she had planned because of the death of her uncle.

Intending to remain for several weeks in the French city, Miss Hood was surprised upon her arrival in the French capital to learn of her uncle's death. Little Miss Robart, who returned with Miss Hood, is orphaned and will make her future home in this country.

BAPTISTS CHOOSE THEIR OFFICERS.

Congregational Meeting Was Largely Attended Last Evening.

SHORT TERM FOR DEACONS

Instead of Being Elected For Life They Will Serve Only Two Year Terms in the Future—Quarterly Reports Were Very Good.

A congregational meeting of the First Baptist Church was held last evening at which time trustees and other officers were elected. The quarterly reports were read showing the financial condition of the church to be exceptionally good. Reports on other matters were equally encouraging.

The most important matter taken up was the decision to elect the church deacons for two year terms in the future. They were formerly chosen for life.

The officers elected were as follows: Church trustees, J. C. Munson, J. S. Jenks, E. D. Martin, F. C. Rose and William Work; church collectors, T. H. Hazen and Edgar Santonyer; church treasurer, George A. Munson; church clerk, L. V. Marshall; financial secretary, Miss Jennie Herbert; chorister, Charles Bailey; head usher, D. Johnson Hoover; assistant head usher, Joseph Metzger.

Pool Rooms Are Prosecuted Now

The spasm of civic virtue which has resulted in the inauguration of a crusade against the sellers of cigarettes and tobacco to minors last night spread to the pool rooms when County Detective Frank McLaughlin made information against R. H. Mulford charging him with permitting boys under 18 to frequent his establishment, under the Second National Bank building.

Other prosecutions are coming, it is said.

Max Levine complained because his two boys, Herman, aged 16, and Nathan, aged 15, were permitted to play pool in the Mulford establishment. Max said the boys' main reason for going to the pool room was because they were making clandestine visits to his pocketbook. McLaughlin made the information on Levine's statement.

Mulford declares the boys reported they were over 18 and says they certainly look that old. He further states that Levine did not report to him the boys were under age or they would have been ejected from the place. The Mulford pool room is a model for good order at all times and those who frequent it must express surprise over the prosecution. The hearing will be before Squire Clark tonight.

Fisheries Plan a Bitter Fight

United Press Telegram.
GLOSTER, Mass., Jan. 27.—While the fish of the fishing fleet were slowly but surely being taken down today as a protest of those who oppose the agreement for reciprocity with Canada, every fishery planned a bitter fight before Congress.

The local fishing interests declare that they will be supported by the entire interests of the country, and that telegrams are pouring in from all parts of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, pleading aid. A committee is to be appointed late today to act with similar committees representing the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, herring, mackerel and salmon fisheries in opposing the ratification of the agreement.

Fifty Years Ago Today. Jan. 27.

A Springfield (Ill.) dispatch announced that President Elect Lincoln would leave that city Feb. 11 and proceed to Washington by way of Cincinnati, Buffalo, Albany, Harrisburg and Baltimore, avoiding New York. South Carolina adopted the palmetto flag as a state emblem.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

The ministry of Lord Salisbury was defeated in the British parliament by a majority of seven to one, a signal for Premier Salisbury to retire. The issue turned on the Irish land question.

Eugene Walter wrote a great drama when he turned out "Paid in Full." The story is a familiar one now, but it never fails to entertain and interest. The drama indicates it will again be greeted by a large audience this evening.

Every Woman Can Have It By Using Parisian Sage Guaranteed by A. A. Clarke.

There is a reason for the phenomenal sale of Parisian Sage in the United States since it was first introduced to America, and the sales this year are breaking all records.

HOW TO MAKE THE COKE TRADE PROFITABLE.

The tin plate trade is reported to be very prosperous notwithstanding the dullness in other lines of iron and steel finished products. In spite of the Pure Food laws, the tin can grows in usefulness and consumption increases accordingly.

When the tin mills of the country were merged, there were too many of them. The business had been very profitable in the beginning because the demand was greater than the supply. This led successively to surplus capacity, overproduction, under-selling, unprofitable business.

The tin plate supply was greater than the demand and there was no way to regulate it. The manufacturers tried all sorts of gentlemen's agreements, but none of them were successful. These verbal bonds were ropes of sand. The product of the tin mills was practically all sold by four big brokers in New York, known to the trade as the Big Four, and they were making all the money. Their profit was sure no matter what the gain or loss of the manufacturer might be.

The Conneltsville merchant coke operators are in much the same condition today. They are trying hard to better that condition, and they may succeed, in some measure, in doing so.

The tin plate manufacturers put a good price on their mills and sold them to Judge Moore and others, who formed the American Tin Plate Company. No manufacturer was asked to take a dollar's worth of the stock of this company. His option price was understood to be cash, but more than 20% of the purchase price of the mills was taken in stock because the manufacturers felt that the problem of profitable operation had been successfully solved.

If a Judge Moore were to come to the Conneltsville region, he might solve the troubles of the merchant operators in short order.

INVASION OF NATURAL COAL AND COKE MARKETS.

The bituminous coal production of Alabama in 1909 was 12,702,210 tons, while that of Pennsylvania was 137,815,515. But Alabama is fortunate in having a home market for its coal and coke, with the result that the Alabama operators realize $1.15 per ton for their coal and $2.50 for their coke, a material advance on the average prices of Pennsylvania coal and coke, notwithstanding our products are much superior to those of Alabama.

It is possible that if the Pittsburgh coal and the Conneltsville coke regions enjoyed discriminating freight rates from their respective fields into the competitive districts of Alabama, the Alabama operators would be undervalued and practically put out of business. Such a condition would arouse their just resentment, yet in a hypothetical decree a similar condition exists with regard to the Pittsburgh and Conneltsville fields. Their home markets have been invaded by railroad discrimination.

The only wonder is that they did not protest long ago.

A POLITICAL HEADSMAN.

The tariff bill created bitter feeling between Canada and the United States, but that feeling promises to be removed and the most cordial relations restored between the two countries by the reciprocity treaty negotiated by President Taft and Secretary Knox.

Instead of reopening the tariff case, the country needs a gradual mending of the rugged edges of the present law, and this will be more wisely and effectively accomplished by the Executive and the proposed tariff board.

The Republicans, however, are perfectly willing that the Democratic House should celebrate its return to power by passing a new tariff bill. The tariff, in the language of a contemporary, is a Political Headman.

Democratic tariff revision will hurt the Democrats more than it will injure the country, because the effort will be abortive while the political effect will remain the same.

THE REFORMS OF POLITICAL UNREST.

The Political Unrest which disturbed the peace and prosperity of the nation and resulted in the election of a Democratic House of Representatives at Washington, has its replica in smaller communities, but the results are always the same. For example, Conneltsville people got restless several years ago and elected a Democratic Council.

Chosen in the name of Reform, this Democratic administration proceeded to give the Conneltsville taxpayers a sample of what practical political reform really means. Contracts were let to favored bidders for work in favored localities, and the town was plastered with certificates of indebtedness until the Constitutional limit was reached and passed, and needed improvements were blocked for years.

But the climax of inquiry was disclosed at the Town Council meeting last night, when the Town Clerk of the Democratic administration was invited to explain by what authority he carried off bodily one of the borough buildings. Tammany's grip on Reform seems to have been strong enough to move the earth. It is difficult to understand how the City Hall remains in its original location.

John Bull—Japan is getting away with those anarchists without having to call out the army like I did with my anarchists.

The Sheriff of Westmoreland county has withdrawn his deputies from the plants of the coal operators. The latter should serve the authorities with notice that they hold the county liable for any damages which may result from lawlessness. It's about time the Westmoreland authorities were awakened to a sense of their lawful duties and responsibilities.

Dead lines are deadly and gas lines are no exception to the rule.

Tom Lewis told the truth about the Lewin strike and was defeated for election as President of the United Mine Workers. Time will vindicate his position, and perhaps it will give him back his mine.

Mid Island is reported to be a monthly town just now.

There is a movement afoot for the erection of new telegraph and telephone poles through the business section of Conneltsville. They ought all to be taken down and the wires put under ground. Some recent fire experiences have amply demonstrated this fact.

The borough hall is not the home of the Seven Sleepers. The Sleepers have grown considerably in numbers since we first read about them.

The Conneltsville Chorus was rather chilly at least last night, but it seemed to know all the answers.

The Street Committee reports one of the borough bridges in bad repair. If some of the floating sidewalks are not fixed soon, the borough may be asked to erect bridges over them in order to protect the public from being drowned in the mire.

It looks very much as if Conneltsville was being generally discriminated against by the fire insurance companies.

The proposed changes in the fish laws of Pennsylvania are all designed to preserve the streams from piscatorial depredation, but all these precautions will avail nothing unless the streams are preserved from pollution.

The Schenk trial was a mistrial, but it was a virtual acquittal for the defendant, and she ought to be discharged.

The Dunbar by-product coking plant is experimenting with smoke coal. It has hitherto successfully coked the Freeport coal, and the fact is encouraging to the hope that the life of the Conneltsville region will be prolonged scores of years by the coal seams lying underneath the Conneltsville seam.

The construction work on the Western Maryland promises to establish a new fast record.

Hullinger and Planchot continue to bat and punch each other. This particular sporting event seems to be a continuous performance with every sent in the house free.

A. Carnegie has given millions for peace, but he also believes that the best way to insure a peaceful operation of the Panama Canal is to fortify it. If the country were not filled with peace officers there would be as much peaceful possession of property as there now is. The same applies to nations. If the United States wants to enjoy peaceful possession of her national soil, she will have to see that it is properly policed.

The Brownsville bridge will be rebuilt on the old site. The tradition of the viewers was undoubtedly for the best.

Virtue isn't always satisfied with its own reward.

"I found," said the man from the west, "I found that the timepiece felt out of my vest. I found it again, when feeling quite sad, through the aid of a little Courier's want ad."

After the Rush Now Is the Great Closing Out Time.

The Union Supply stores are offering now great reductions on all lines of women's and misses' goods, consisting of ready-made suits, wraps, skirts, shirt waists, etc. There are great big lines of fashionable medium priced goods, and starting this day, there will be a great reduction on all of them. If you have not yet secured your winter outfit, it is a good time now to do so; it is a money-saving time for you, as the goods must be sold, and we recommend that you come early. We have just completed our inventory, and every article has been marked down to such a low price that they cannot last long.

There Are Great Reductions in the Shoe Department.

Our shoe stocks, we find after inventory, are entirely too heavy, and we are going to make one strenuous effort to reduce them. Reducing the price, is, to our notion, the best way of reducing the stocks. Therefore, every pair of shoes has been gone over carefully and marked down; in some instances fully 2-3% less than the original price. We defy any competitor to show a better line of shoes, for men, women, boys and girls than the Union Supply Company stores have on hand. They are all made according to our own specifications; every pair guaranteed to us by the makers, and we in turn, guarantee them to our customers. If not satisfactory, a new pair awaits you or we will refund your money, if you prefer.

The Impressions of a Minister As Prisoner in Fayette County Jail.

By Rev. A. H. Newman.

Because of legal advice we withhold statement of all the important reasons why at several times, we have announced in public print and given our lecture to young men on the sociology of the male and the benefits of education, and what seems, from the present viewpoint, like unwarranted arrest, false imprisonment as two rankish tricks of a young township constable, for our confining on a Christian when reasonable is a Jewish rite for the prevention of vice.

We have to infer this from the fact that while waiting with an alert attorney for nearly two weeks, we have not yet obtained any formal information or statement of the charges against us, if any at all.

And for a possibly impatient public with whom we have lived so long, and who has a right to know, we devote ourself to present to the social, or unsocial phases of our prison life for two days. Saying with St. Paul: "To the Jews I have done no wrong." "For if I have been an offender or have committed things worthy of death, I refuse not to die."

When once within the prison walls it will soon be seen that the official releasing there are much like men outside. Some have hearts and some have not.

One will hear your appeal as kindly as his prerogatives will allow, and another will consider you as condemned worthy of death already and has nothing for you but a swift and silent view of his back.

Our nation is proving at large that our boasted high civilization cannot always man its offices with men highly civilized; especially the Constabulary.

One who saw something wrong in our being "walked in" said substantially: "You can depend on it, if there is a right way of getting him out of here, I am going to do it." It was the first time in my life that I stretched on a stiff cold iron bunk with a naked bottom and nothing over me in a cold winter's night, in a place none too warm till exhaustion made me sleep and when I awoke, and in the next act to move and hug the radiator. Parts 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

NO DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, GAS OR ANY OTHER STOMACH DISTRESS.

Relief in Five Minute Awaits Every Stomach Sufferer Here.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diaprepin occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat.

End what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion or that you will be bothered with acid, flatulence, belching, gas on stomach, heartburn, headache from stomach, nausea, indigestion, water brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes. If you will get from your pharmacist a 50 cent case of Diaprepin you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no indigestion or sleepless nights or headache or stomach misery all the next day; and besides, you would not need laxative or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diaprepin can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of indigestion or dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the Stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache.

You couldn't keep a landlord or mere useful article in the house.

Fake Beggars Infest Scottdale

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, Jan. 27.—Professional beggars are said to be flocking to Scottdale and systematically working the charity inclined to a degree never known here before. At the same time this is operating against the really needy people who are reduced to appealing to the public for aid in their distress. Just now the town in general is feeling in a particularly charitable mood, and this is apparently being taken advantage of by a class of mendicants, who have been parading their trade systematically and profitably.

There have been a number of complaints from people who believe that they have been victimized by professional solicitors for alms, and the stories they tell of some of those who come to their homes, and even invade the stores, bear this out.

One group of beggars, male and female, are alleged to have been frequenting the town and the surrounding country and in every case being very close as to what was given them. They make a practice of asking for special things. They will accept, it is said, for illustration only entire loaves of bread, full pounds of coffee, broken jars of jellies. It is said that people have seen these same folks selling their plunder at other places. This would explain the demand for whole loaves, full pounds and unbroken jars.

Health Officer Had Wrong Sign

Health Officer Hyatt made a mistake yesterday. He didn't notice it but the attending physician did when he went to the home of Peter Ranker on Fairview avenue yesterday and found a diphtheria card tucked beside the door. The Health Officer was found in a hurry and substituted a card reading "Typhoid Fever" instead of "Diphtheria." The case was reported true but Mr. Hyatt mistook it for diphtheria. As a consequence of the change in signs the neighbors are feeling easier, especially the youngsters, for even in this advanced age it is a habit of youngsters to hold their breath when passing a house bearing a diphtheria or scarlet fever sign. That, they insist, is a sure preventative.

Tarr Plant to Be Fired. The Tarr plant of the Frick company, according to report, is soon to be fired.
